

Call for papers for the Social Work Review Issue 1/2026 Educational and professional resilience in digital era

Dear colleagues and collaborators,

We invite you to contribute with your articles to issue 1/2026 of the Social Work Review (http://www.swreview.ro/index.pl/home_en), a scientific journal indexed by BDI (ProQuest, EBSCO, Social Work Abstracts, CEEOL, Index Copernicus, SCIPPIO, GESIS, IBSS, Erich + and accredited B + by CNCSIS), published by the University of Bucharest, Faculty of Sociology and Social Work in partnership with Polirom Publishing House. It is intended to be a means of disseminating research, good practice, experiences in the field of social work, but also policies, serving as a tool for social change. Innovative articles, research, comments on policies, practices and their implications for social workers, are accepted. Studies that have a comparative dimension or that highlight the relevance of the studied problem for different contexts and geographical areas are encouraged. We are waiting for articles and studies in English and / or Romanian.

Political, environmental, social, and economic difficulties impact everyone involved in educational and professional life in many deep and different ways. Making sure that people and professionals who work with them can survive and thrive when life is tough is therefore an essential part of personal development in our century.

Issue 1/2026, edited by Prof. Mihaela Tomita, PhD, and Lecturer Roxana Ungureanu, PhD, from the Social Work Department of the West University of Timisoara, provides a space to present the results of research and articles focused on the topic: Educational and professional resilience in digital era. The central role of technologies like social media and smartphones in our lives means that learning to navigate the digital world is now a core developmental task for all of us.

Risk and protective factors in different educational and professional systems, the digital resilience, the resilience in higher education, students' and educators' resilience, professionals' resilience working with minors and adults in the criminal justice system, are some of the topics we invite you to reflect on it and contribute to this special issues of Social Work Review.

Manuscripts must be sent by e-mail by 15 of October 2025, in a word format, to the two editors: mihaela.tomita@e-uvt.ro & roxana.ungureanu@e-uvt.ro. Articles are subject to a double-blind peer review process. The editorial team makes the first selection of articles, before sending the articles to at least 2 reviewers. Articles are accepted based on adequacy, clarity, sound methodology and usefulness for social practice, research and education. Estimated publication date is March 2026.

Editors,

Prof. Mihaela Tomita, PhD, and Lecturer Roxana Ungureanu, PhD